

Four States Irrigation Council Scholarship Application

Established in 1952, the Four States Irrigation Council serves as a forum for irrigators to exchange ideas and information, to discuss specific irrigation-related problems, and to learn if solutions to those problems have been explored by other members. The member states are Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska and Wyoming.

Established in 2015, The Four States Irrigation Council Scholarship is an exciting opportunity offering a $2,000, one-year scholarship for a qualified undergraduate or graduate student who:

- Is currently enrolled at an accredited university or college in Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska or Wyoming
- Is pursuing a degree in an agricultural water and/or irrigation-related field
- Desires to pursue a career in an agricultural water and or/irrigation-related field
- Demonstrates leadership and promise in an agricultural or water-related career
- Has a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0

Four States Irrigation Council will waive registration fees for all scholarship applicants who would like to attend the Annual Meeting, January 9-11, 2019, at the Hilton in Fort Collins, CO. Scholarship winners are encouraged to attend the Annual Four States Irrigation Council Meeting and may request travel support and lodging.

Applications must be received by June 1st, 2018.

The award will be announced by September 1st, 2018.
